Better for People

Bodies in motion tend to stay in motion. From young athletes playing hoops, to seniors aging actively, to the tireless health and wellness professionals keeping them in the game, “athletes” of all shapes, sizes and ages are more active than ever! Ecore’s patented itsTRU™ Technology allows for this suite of high-performance sheet vinyl, where sport court meets healthcare flooring. The result is more body supporting than floor covering, offering exceptional acoustic, ergonomic and safety characteristics. Group exercise, yoga and dance... Check. Sports medicine, labs and pharmacies... Check. Multipurpose courts and even active aging environments... Check. Floors that do MORE for Bodies that do MORE!
